CREDIT BUILDING 101: BUILDING CREDIT AS AN ASSET

This three-part course teaches credit building fundamentals, corrects common misconceptions, and provides actionable credit building strategies to participants. Members must commit to take all three workshops. Incentives are available for members upon completion of the full course.

WHY THIS APPROACH?

Credit is deliberately complicated and can be hard to understand. Each course builds on the one before and puts the power of credit building directly into our members' hands.
